

FAIR SATURDAY SCOTLAND

Saturday 25th
November 2023

A DAY
CULTURE
CHANGE

A photograph of a community event taking place in a room with extensive wood paneling. In the foreground, a woman with blonde hair wearing a grey t-shirt and a black and white polka-dot skirt is seen from the back. Next to her, a young boy in a black shirt and glasses is looking towards a woman with long dark hair who is wearing a light-colored dress. In the background, a man is seated and playing an acoustic guitar. The room features a bookshelf, framed pictures on the wall, and a large black speaker. The scene is lit with warm, ambient light.

2023 Events
programme

Welcome...

...to Fair Saturday 2023!

We're delighted to see you here, and we have a wonderful programme of events by artists and performers from all over Scotland to celebrate Fair Saturday 2023.

Fair Saturday Scotland is our contribution to the international Fair Saturday Movement, a global mobilisation that aims to create a positive social impact, with culture at the centre. Originating in Bilbao in 2014, Fair Saturday is a very simple idea. We believe that there are two essential elements to build fairer and more developed societies: culture and empathy. Fair Saturday aims to respond to Black Friday in a positive way by prioritising culture and social empathy towards the most vulnerable in our society. Artists and cultural organisations from across Scotland and over the world get together in a global festival following just one requirement: to support a social cause of their choice through their event.

We would like to thank all the organisations who support Fair Saturday in Scotland, from our partners to all the participants, and you, the audience. We wouldn't be here without you!

"We have the opportunity to recognise the value of culture for development and social cohesion, empathy and equality. At Fair Saturday and of course every day of the year."

Print Sale - Stampalofi

10am-6pm, Stampalofi, Middle Floor, Ocean Terminal, Ocean Drive, Leith EH6 6JJ

Free, unticketed

Stampalofi is an open print studio and hot desk studio space in the Ocean Terminal shopping centre. We offer regular workshops to teach printmaking and sell prints by a number of artists.

We have been very lucky to buy a wonderful etching press from the Restall family who have agreed to sell works of Hazel Restall where 70% of sales are put into a micro residency fund to teach new printmakers. For Fair Saturday Stampalofi is excited to extend this percentage to all art on show.

The Hazell Restall Micro Residency is offered to artists based in Edinburgh and Leith interested in learning or advancing printmaking techniques at the Stampalofi studio. The residency will last 4 days at the start of each month, during which time the artist will have access to the studio, printmaking facilities and a selection of materials.

If you are interested in learning printmaking or using the print workshop please ask.

Grassmarket Market

10am-5pm, Grassmarket, Edinburgh EH1 2HS

Free, unticketed

Come along to Grassmarket market and spend a while browsing the stalls full of lots of goodies and treats from local artisans and makers.

It's a perfect place to pick up a gift, for others, or yourself, and by buying here you'll know that you're supporting small independent traders and craftspeople. There will be stalls selling jewellery, lamps, handmade soaps, bags, children's clothing, leather goods, cards, ceramics, textiles, embroidery kits and cashmere knitwear. If music is more your thing, there's a stall selling vinyl and CDs.

There are also plenty of yummy eating options, from fresh bakes, breads, olives, tapenades, and sweet treats, to streetfood from Japan, Kenya, and Spain.

For a full list of stall holders, check out the web page nearer the time.

Leith Market

10am-4pm, Dock Place, Leith, Edinburgh EH6 6LU

Free, unticketed

Leith Market, just off the Shore at the beautiful Custom House, is a lovely place to spend a few hours and find some new favourite local artisans. Take a wander round the food stalls and smell the fresh coffee brewing as you browse. There are plenty of stalls to pick up lunch, and it's also a great place to stock up on sustainable supplies, from handmade soaps to bamboo homewares and green bags.

As part of Leith Market's commitment to Fair Saturday, they are providing a stall to Bare Branding C.I.C. which helps to promote artists and the broader community and charities in printing locally and selling locally.

Christmas Craft Fair

The Eric Liddell Community

10.30am-3.30pm, 15 Morningside Road, Edinburgh

Free, unticketed

Come and get into the festive spirit at the Eric Liddell Community Christmas Craft Fair. In addition to lots of lovely craft stalls by local makers, perfect for picking up Christmas gifts, there's a whole range of activities planned for the family, including face painting and Christmas cupcake decorating.

Refreshments are available, from mulled wine and mince pies, to the community produce stall, selling jam, chutney, shortbread, oatcakes, tablet and more. Café Connect will also be open for hot and cold drinks, scones, soup & crusty bread.

By coming along today, you'll be supporting the valuable work of the Eric Liddell Community. We are passionate about providing key services to people living with dementia and their carers across Edinburgh, while bringing the local community together in our Community Hub in Morningside. All the services we run are designed to bring us closer to our vision to live in a community where no one feels lonely or isolated. This year we will also be working in partnership with Edinburgh and Lothians Greenspace Trust on their 'Million Tree City' initiative. They will have a table outside and be giving away free trees.

I could have danced all night...

The Living Memory Association

1pm-4pm, Wee Museum of Memory, Ocean Terminal, 2nd

Floor next to Britannia, Ocean Drive, Leith EH6 6JJ

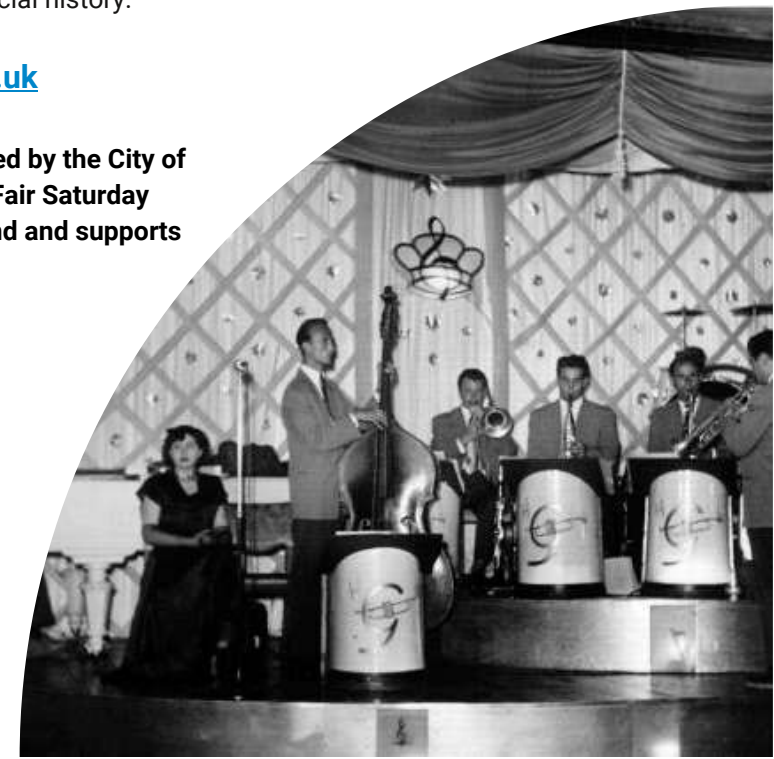

This event is for a closed group of participants

A reminiscence drop-in session on Saturday 25th November from 1pm in the Wee Museum of Memory in Ocean Terminal. We'll talk about your memories of dancing and dance halls. There will be music and the chance of a dance!

This event is for closed group of participants, many with dementia, who will directly benefit from the reminiscence group activities. This will help to combat feelings of isolation and loneliness. However, the stories collected at the event will be turned into podcasts and made available to a wider audience via our website and YouTube channel. Listeners will be able to re-live the times that they went out to the dancing. And by recording these memories we will capture a valuable piece of social history.

A DAY CULTURE CHANGE

The background of the poster is a photograph of the Dundee Railway Bridge, a large steel truss bridge spanning the Firth of Tay. The bridge is seen from a low angle, emphasizing its scale. The water is calm, and the sky is overcast. In the distance, the city of Dundee is visible. The text 'A DAY CULTURE CHANGE' is overlaid on the left side in a large, blue, outlined font. A blue arc is in the top right corner, and a black arc is in the bottom left corner.

20th Birthday Concert

Friends of Wighton

2pm-4.30pm, Steps Theatre, Central Library, Wellgate, Dundee DD1 2DB

Free, unticketed

Join our 20th birthday celebrations!

We have planned a lovely afternoon concert of Scottish Music to celebrate our 20th birthday at the Steps Theatre.

This event is part of the Friends of Wighton Outreach Programme and is free to attend. You are warmly invited to come along. We hope to see you there! The Wighton Centre, in Dundee central library, is home to an internationally important collection of old Scottish music books, mostly dating from the 18th and early 19th centuries. The collection was donated by the Dundee merchant and music collector, Andrew Wighton. The Friends of Wighton organises concerts and classes in the Wighton Centre, Dundee, to help raise awareness of this wonderful resource.

Dundee Hooley 2023

Dundee City Council

3pm-7.30pm, Dundee City Square, Dundee

Unticketed, free, outside

Join us at The Dundee Hooley as we celebrate the values of kindness and hospitality that St Andrew's Day and Scotland exemplify. We extend a warm invitation to everyone to gather with family and friends for a memorable and enjoyable evening. There will be captivating dance performances from Bharatiya Ashram Dance Group and Urban Moves; delightful bubble fun with Poppy Bubble; and live music on stage by Ceol Dun Deagh and the lively ceilidh band, Skyrrie.

The centrepiece of the evening promises to be the Dundee Hooley parade! This torchlight procession and parade has been a beloved part of past festive celebrations, and we're thrilled to announce its return this year. The procession and parade will kick off at 5.30pm, starting from High School of Dundee, and will follow a route along Panmure Street, Murraygate, and High Street, arriving in City Square at around 5.45pm. Leading the way will be the Lord Provost and Pipe Band, with participants carrying illuminated torches, fire performers Pyro Celtica, Giant Puppets and lanterns by Thingumajig Theatre, the talented dancers from Dundee's Urban Moves dance company, and a grand finale featuring the Commotion Drummers Samba Band. Once the procession has arrived and the final flourish of the drummers is done, the Ceilidh will kick off from 6-7pm to dance our socks off!

The event is free, but you need to register to take part in the torchlight procession.

Exhibition - An Adventure in Time: The Orkney Strawplaiters

Northlight Gallery & The Orkney News

11am-4pm, Northlight Gallery, Graham Place,
Stromness, Orkney KW16 3BY

Unticketed, free

The working lives of women and girls are explored in a series of events in Stromness following the publication of a new book 'The Strawplaiters of Orkney' by Fiona Grahame and published by Orkney News Ltd.

Thousands of women and girls were employed plaiting straw for the bonnet making industry in Orkney in the first half of the 19th century. Orkney had everything for this industry to flourish: the raw materials, a highly skilled workforce, and a distribution network based on shipping both for imports and exports. Fiona Grahame said: "Stromness, as a major port, was a hub for this industry but it spread throughout Orkney...What happened to the people who had relied on this industry when it suddenly collapsed? 'The Strawplaiters of Orkney, follows the lives of the people involved and explores the reasons why it vanished so quickly."

This exhibition runs from 13th to 25th November, daily 11am-4pm.

Kindness of Words Family Activity Pack

Fair Saturday Foundation

Words can be powerful and words can be kind, and a love of stories and poetry can last and enrich your whole life.

To accompany our Fair Saturday events programme and celebrate the Fair Saturday Movement, we have created a resource pack with lots of activities to encourage the telling and sharing of stories together. Kindness is at the very heart of Fair Saturday and a big part of what makes us who we are as a country. We can show kindness in lots of different ways, but sharing stories and songs together to celebrate our culture and our diverse communities is a great way to start.

We hope you enjoy trying some of these out, and we'd love to see what you do and create. You can share your activities on instagram or facebook using the hashtags #kindnessofwords and #fairsaturdayscotland

The full pack, which can also be used by schools and libraries can be downloaded from the homepage of our website:

standrews.fairsaturday.org

We have big plans for Kindness of Words launching in January 2024, so look out for details early in the new year!

More ideas for sharing stories...

If you have some books that you don't read any more, give them to friends or donate them to a charity shop.

Share some kind words this Fair Saturday. Write a letter or draw a picture to send to someone you haven't seen for a while.

Design a cover for your favourite book or story.

Gather your toys together (or a younger brother or sister!) and read or tell them a story.

See if you can learn your favourite poem off by heart and then recite it to someone.

Tell someone at home a story about someone who has been kind to you. What did they do? How did it make you feel?

Make a midnight feast or build a blanket den and read or tell stories by torchlight.

Take a book when you go out and play with your friends. You can read in a woodland camp.

Songs can be stories too! Learn the words to a song that you like and sing it to someone at home. Maybe you can teach them the words too.

Words of Kindness

Little Stories of Kindness Micro Fiction Competition

Fair Saturday Foundation & Candlestick Press
25th November - 31st December

Kindness can take many forms. It might be saying or sending a few kind words to a friend who needs it right now, or inviting someone for a cup of tea, either in person or virtually. Candlestick Press is a small independent publisher that understands just how important words of kindness can be. They publish beautiful pamphlets of poetry that can be sent instead of a card and really brighten someone's day.

We'd love to hear your little stories of kindness. We're running a micro-fiction competition for stories on the theme of Kindness. Stories must be no longer than 100 words and there are three categories for entrants: Adult writers, Young writers 5–11, Young writers 12–18.

To enter, just email your story to scotland@fairsaturday.org before 31st December. The top five entries in the adult and 12-18 categories will win a copy of Ten Poems of Kindness volume 1 or volume 2, and the top five entries in the 5-11 category will win a copy of Gift of the Old One, all of which have been very generously donated by Candlestick Press. We'll also publish them on our website.

Fair Saturday by Antonio Garrigues Walker

Honorary Chairman of Garrigues and Honorary Spanish President of UNHCR

The idea is good and profound and positive and joyful. It is an appropriate idea for young people and for those who feel their mind is young. And those are the ones who set it in motion. This is about discovering the value, the importance and the grace of culture and connecting it with the immense desire for culture of a society that want to be responsible.

Black Friday has its thing and its how and its reason for being. It has managed consumption's vertigo to perfection, manipulating it with an impressive and overwhelming efficacy. It holds its place with a slight – very slight – effort. It leads an unstoppable flow and most of the times it achieves to confuse what we have with what we are. This absurd fever is also part of the human being.

The Fair Saturday movement wants to do just as much in its own way, with other objectives. It wants to take on the world of feelings, of sensations, of ideas, of hope and of some specific dreams that cannot be tackled down or put aside. And for that, the path is quite simple. To fill for one day our venues and every corner of the cities that need to breathe and feed on new winds with cultural activities.

Every last Saturday of November we will have the right to dream together. Choirs, street artists, music bands, theatres, museums, painters, storytellers, poets, sopranos, photographers, dancers, dance schools,... amateur and professional, private and public, from here and there, young and veteran. They will start marching and they will be unstoppable. Artists and cultural organisations from all around the world performing the same day and supporting the social causes they chose. Many things will burst and this will be a sign, maybe definite, that it is possible, definitely possible, to tackle the vulgarity, the narrow-mindedness, the greediness, the routine, the stupidity.

Fair Saturday will end up being a brilliant example of how culture is the only solution to dignify democracy, to generate real wealth and to be able to aspire to a humane future. And the young people and those who feel their minds are young will have won what seemed in the beginning of the adventure – as in every worthy adventure – absolutely impossible.
